DESCRIPTION

A magnificent top floor apartment right on the seafront, with stunning panoramic sea views. The spacious and bright living room of the apartment has large glass doors to large balconies on both sides of the apartment. The master bedroom faces the sea and also has its own access to the landscaped balcony. The kitchen of the apartment is well equipped, and it is a pleasure to cook there. A water filter is installed in the kitchen, from which you can conveniently get drinking water without carrying bottles from the store. The extensive green areas and swimming pools of the housing association are at your disposal. The apartment includes a private parking space in the housing association's garage, from which there is direct access by elevator to the apartment door. The housing association also has a paddle court, for which you can book shifts with the area guard. Electricity fee 0.32€/kWh, according to consumption.
